About Duane & Martha Conrad International Representatives with Cru in Western Europe since 1976

From 1976-2013, Duane & Martha were actively involved in evangelism, discipleship, and leadership development among Germans in different roles: campus ministry, training of German staff, ministry behind the Iron Curtain before it fell, and leading the German national ministry as national directors. In 2013, their role expanded to cover a wider area of Western Europe. Through video calls and personal visits in the countries, they are currently training, coaching, and developing national staff in Germany, Netherlands, Greece, Portugal, Austria, Ireland and Israel.

In the fall of 2019, they moved back to the USA and are now living in Vermont, but continue to serve on our European team. As they move towards retirement, one of their main focuses is mentoring their successors in this ministry.

The Conrads have three grown children – a daughter and son-in-law with their seven children live in Vermont, a daughter and son-in-law in Lisbon, Portugal, and a son and daughter-in-law with their two children in Munich, Germany.

Family Email List

For the past few weeks, with our Facebook being down, we have been emailing the Faithfinder website link as well as a pdf version to those on our current list of contacts. We would like to continue this so that we are assured that as many as possible are reading the Faithfinder each week.

If you have been getting your Faithfinder—great! If you haven't or aren't sure—please check your email, including your spam/junk folders. If you still don't seem to be on our list, please send Deb a note at debfbcc@gmail.com so that you can be added. As always, printed copies of the Faithfinder are available at the Connection Wall each week. Thank you for your help!
